

Professional Development

Summary of Margaret Eckstein's professional development starting in 2021, reflecting a focus in archives and nonprofit management, preservation, outreach, and project management.

Workshops:

- Lyrasis - Project Management for Library & Archives Professionals, 2022
- Lyrasis - Practical Digital Preservation on a Shoestring: Triage for the Underfunded, 2022
- Preservica, Starter Community Workshop, 2021
- Society of American Archivists - Describing Archives: A Content Standard Fundamentals, 2020
- American Library Association, Fundamentals of Metadata, 2020

Webinars:

- Henry Stewart Events, Inclusive Metadata: Steps to address diversity, equity and inclusion in your DAM, 2023
- NUI Galway Library, Archives and Human Rights: Truth-Telling, Memory, and Institutional Record, 2022
- Preservica, Incorporating Digital Preservation into Your DAM Program, 2022
- Brandeis University, The Processing Manual as a Tool for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, 2022
- Preservica, Elevating the value of your archive in the new digital world, 2021
- The Barnes Foundation, Success Stories for Nonprofit Leaders: How to use Technology to Expand your Reach & Create Mission Impact, 2021
- ArtCenter College of Design - Reimagining Access: Inclusive Technology for Archives & Special Collections, 2021
- Image Permanence Institute, Sustainable Preservation: Quick Tips and Approaches for Museums, Libraries, and Archives, 2021
- Research Data Management Librarian Academy, Data and Communities: Intersections of Truth, Silence, Access, and Identity, 2021
- American Alliance of Museums, Rethinking Museums as Inclusive Public Assets, 2021

Conferences:

- Archives and Records, 2022 (Boston)
- American Alliance of Museums, The Museum Summit on Creative Aging, 2021 (remote)
- The Museum Summit on Creative Aging, 2021 (remote)